WHAT TO EXPECT

Engage in discussions with your teams to explore the intricacies of your processes, procedures, and challenges.

Active observation of your operations team during their daily work to identify opportunities for process improvements, system usage tips/tricks, and areas where additional consulting and training could be beneficial.

Comprehensive analysis of your system, covering everything from setup and configuration to processing and reporting.

Delivery of a detailed report, including:

- A summary of on-site accomplishments and assistance provided while on site.
- Short-term recommendations for easily implementable solutions.
- Long-term recommendations that may require more in-depth consulting and possibly additional training.
- Estimates of the hours needed for each follow-up recommendation, along with the associated price per hour to assist you in planning and budgeting.
